

Jesus, a god?

	Word for word Greek translation
John 1:1-2	IN BEGINNING WAS THE WORD, AND THE WORD WAS WITH THE GOD , AND ----- GOD WAS THE WORD. THIS ONE WAS IN BEGINNING WITH THE GOD .

The Word = Jesus (see john 1:14)

	New World Translation
John 1:1	In the beginning the Word was, and the Word was with God, and the Word was a god .

Verse	New World Translation	If Consistent
John 1:6	There arose a man that was sent forth as a representative of God : his name was John.	There arose a man that was sent forth as a representative of a god : his name was John.
John 1:12	However, as many as did receive him, to them he gave authority to become God's children , because they were exercising faith in his name;	However, as many as did receive him, to them he gave authority to become children of a god , because they were exercising faith in his name;
John 1:13	And they were born, not from blood or from a fleshly will or from man's will, but from God .	And they were born, not from blood or from a fleshly will or from man's will, but from a god .
John 1:18	No man has seen God at any time; the only-begotten god who is in the bosom position with the Father is the one that has explained him.	No man has seen a god at any time; the only-begotten God who is in the bosom position with the Father is the one that has explained him.
John 6:45	It is written in the Prophets, 'And they will all be taught by Jehovah . Everyone that has heard from the Father and has learned comes to me.	It is written in the Prophets, 'And they will all be taught by a jehovah . Everyone that has heard from the Father and has learned comes to me.

“God” means “God” in the other two occurrences immediately preceding and following. So, for the NWT translation to be right, “theos” has to mean something totally different right in-between two other occurrences that obviously mean “God.”
